From an Association's Perspective

JL ArjenApuri can be useful for associations, for example:

- Light everyday support for members
- Temporary help without commitments
- Assistance where even small tasks make a difference
- Basic technical support for elderly or less digitally skilled individuals
- Friendly and safe additional help without an official social service role

The activity is clearly low-threshold, supportive everyday help.

It does not replace official social services, but complements them with light, quickly accessible assistance.
